Transportation to Cal State L.A. is excellent! There are several bus lines that serve and stop on campus. A few run along surface streets north and south of campus, such as METRO line 70/71. The two main transit agencies that serve Cal State L.A. are METRO and Foothill Transit whose lines are listed below. There are also shuttles that serve the campus: The Children’s Court Shuttle, Monterey Park Spirit, link, Alhambra Community Transit (ACT), and the East Los Angeles Shuttle (El Sol). There is also a Metrolink Station where Metrolink trains stop 7 days a week. Metrolink tickets and passes are available from the vending machine adjacent to the Transit Center on Circle Drive. Discount Metrolink passes are available to eligible students and CSULA employees. For more information on discounts and eligibility visit the Commuter Services office (323) 343-5277 on the south side of Public Safety. All Schedules are subject to change without notice.
